We are best advertised by what our friends say of us.

Otto Widmann, Old Orchard, Mo. — "I am highly pleased with the hatching process from which you are going to raise your young Osprey. It will be hardly necessary to tell you to put my name on the list of subscribers, but I hope that all my friends do likewise."

A. W. Anthony, San Diego, Cal. — "I think that there is plenty of room for a well conducted Ornithological Journal and will gladly give such the support in my power, and hope you will meet with the success you deserve."

Chas. K. Worthen, Warsaw, Ill. — "I embrace my first opportunity to congratulate you, and shall be very glad to do anything in my power to assist you."

D. A. Cohen, Alameda, Cal. — "I like prospectus very much; and eagerly await the 1st number. If you carry out your plans you will make your paper a standard and give no cause for complaint."

C. Irwin Salter, Springfield, Ill. — "A strictly 'O & O' journal will be a regular 'treat.'"

Henry B. Keading, Drytown, Cal. — "You are giving us just what we want."

Wm. L. Kells, Listowel, Can. — "I wish it had come sooner."

Edited by Walter A. Johnson, Dr. A. C. Murchison, Chester Barlow, California Dept.
